

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

October 6, 2019

A Little Faith

Today our readings are about faith, frustration, and how much is enough. Habakkuk is a complainer having an argument with God. Timothy is encouraging a community challenged by cowardice and the apostles want more faith than they have. Things aren't happening fast enough for any of them or for us. All of them and we want God to do something sooner rather than later and we want God to give us a reason to believe that it will all work out. What does God do? God puts it back on them—and us—telling Habakkuk to describe the world he wants; telling the apostles to do more than the expected. Doing more with less is a familiar phrase today and a reminder that a little faith may be enough even for the most difficult times.

Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of human life.

Second Collection: Next weekend we will take up a diocesan collection for the works of the Diocese of Monterey Respect Life Department.

Central Coast Walk for Life: This annual event, sponsored by our Diocese, will take place on Sat., Oct. 19th. The walk begins at Mission San Luis Obispo plaza at 11:30 am. For a complete schedule of events please go to their website at www.walk4lifecc.org.
