

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT ~ MARCH 11, 2018

Communal Responsibility

The people of God forgot the covenant and flouted God's laws. They did not listen to the prophets among them, who spoke for God in warning them. Prophets are sent from God to remind us why we are here, but they are often, even in our own time, mocked, disregarded, and mistreated rather than thanked and listened to.

The book of Chronicles tells the results of these sins: the destruction of the temple and all of Jerusalem, murder, mayhem, and finally exile to a foreign land. Why are these stories in the Bible? Just to inform us of what happened to our ancient forebears? What good would that be unless there were a message and a warning for us as well? Are we people who follow the teachings of God, who obey the words of Christ in the second covenant in his blood? Or do we continue to wreak works of darkness and violence? We are reminded by these readings that we will be judged as a people, not just as individuals.

Thank You...

"My sincere and heart-felt thanks to all who have remembered my son, Guy, with prayers, lovely cards and Masses. Your expressions of sympathy are very much appreciated." ~Sally Arbogast

"Thank you to everyone who worked to make Craig's funeral Mass and reception so meaningful and memorable. It was a wonderful tribute to a wonderful man. Casey and I were honored that you all temporarily set aside your own mourning so that you could serve the hundreds of others who were there to grieve, share, and ultimately celebrate Craig and his life of inspiration, friendship and service." ~Kathleen Marlo

A Prayer for Lenten Simplicity

*Free me, Lord Jesus, from anything that obstructs my way to you.
 Clear away the clutter of petty gadgets.
 Remove smudges of resentment and bitterness.
 Cleanse me of thoughts filled with anger, envy, or self-pity.
 Create space in my life for more kindness and less spitefulness, greater generosity and few self-centered needs, stronger compassion and weakened judgement of other.
 Enlarge my heart with a spirit of gratitude this Lent, so that I recognize the simple gifts that lay in abundance all around me.
 In your Sacred Name, I pray. Amen*
