

PENTECOST SUNDAY

JUNE 4, 2017

Send Out Your Spirit

Last week we heard that, following the Ascension, the disciples, Mary, and other followers of the Lord retreated to the upper room in prayer. This week we hear that, while praying in that room, the Holy Spirit comes upon them. Jesus' post-Resurrection promise, recounted in today's Gospel, is fulfilled: the power of the Holy Spirit comes upon Jesus' followers. Saint Paul tells us that all of us, in some way, are given gifts of the Holy Spirit, gifts that can be used to spread the Good News. Today is one of the Church's greatest festivals. Let us carry the refrain of the responsorial psalm with us throughout the coming week: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!" (Psalm 104:30). Copyright © J. S. The Pivotal Players– Don't Miss It! St. Catherine of Siena

Don't miss the third saint in Bishop Robert Barron's "Pivotal Players" series. Bishop Barron has a wonderful way of taking the life of a saint and bringing it into today's relevancy. Our next meeting in the series will be Tues., June 13th, in the hall. The next saint will be Catherine of Siena. The series is presented through the parish and women's club. All are invited and encouraged to attend. Bring a guest! The potluck lunch will be served at 11:30 am, so bring a dish to share and enjoy the company of other parishioners. The program begins at 12:30 pm sharp and lasts an hour. A short discussion follows. We travel through the times and places of each saint through the wonderful filming of this series. Look forward to seeing you there! Please call Linda McFarland (927-2860) or Dianne Dougherty (927-2434) with questions.

Welcome Newly Baptized!

Catholic Communications Campaign

Next week our second collection is for the Catholic Communications Campaign. This campaign connects people with Christ, here and around the world in developing countries, through the internet, television, radio and print media. Half of the funds collected remains in our diocese to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the gospel message.
